OFFICE ORDER

You are aware that BRLPS has decided to hold a Financial Inclusion Program in selected 22 districts of the state on 23rd July, 23rd August and 23rd September 2014. The decision to do so has been communicated to all the DPCUs through letter numbered BRLPS/Proj/497/14/720, dated: 24th May 2014. The program is captioned as विभिन्न बैंकों के सान्निध्य में स्वयं सहायता समूहों के वित्तीय एवं सामाजिक समावेशन के "बढ़ते कदम"

In order to make the program of Financial Inclusion (बढ़ते कदम) successful in all related districts, following is directed to act upon:

- (a) Intimate the District Magistrate and DDC of the district to seek their guidance and time for the program.
- (b) The program will be held in an auditorium or any hall suggested by District Administration/DPCU of the concerned district.
- (c) SHG members will be participating in the program related to Financial Inclusion. The number of members participating in the program shouldn't cross 400. Due care needs to be taken for passing on instruction to all the concerned staffs to ensure safe movement of SHG members. Please ensure that only that much number of members to be invited who can be also accommodated in the hall or auditorium with ease.
- (d) Proposed Budget for each of the district is being put as an annexure. In case any district has different planning, then the same is required to be communicated to PC-FI by related DPM and based on the need suitable direction will be further provided.
- (e) The program is an opportunity to sensitize all the stakeholders (SHG members, Banks, New Staffs of Jeevika, Community Cadres etc.) about the importance of leveraging support for SHG members. There is a need to portray the image of solidarity for SHG movement and Women

Empowerment. The proposed program is an opportunity for the same and should be utilized in the best possible way.

- (f) Different DPCUs can think of putting some stalls for sharing information and work done by BRLPS. The stalls can give glimpse of process of community mobilization/systems of financial management/livelihood activities etc which are part and parcel of the BRLPS functioning.
- (g) The Financial Inclusion Program will include all numbers related to Savings Account Opening, Credit Linkages and Community Investment Fund released to SHGs or Federations after March 2014. The importance of timely support for savings account opening and related investment made by the project need to be highlighted as an important intervention to support rural livelihoods.
- (h) It is directed that for Financial Inclusion Program of August and September 2014, High Importance has to be given to Micro Planning and Disbursement of CIF amount to Groups & Federations. All DPMs are directed to put a strategy in place well in advance to achieve highest results. This will act as complimentary to the effort made for saving account opening & credit linkages in collaboration with banks.

It is directed that respective DPMs will facilitate and ensure implementation of the above mentioned aspects with adequate planning for successful organization of Financial Inclusion Program.
